unique to the hotel and sets it apart from the other hotels in Kuching City.

"This project allows us to further expand and enhance our existing hotel portfolio and strengthen our hotels' positioning in the market," SEDC's Director of Tourism & Leisure, Edwin Abit said of the new tower. He also said that the Premier Wing would contribute towards the growth of Sarawak's tourism industry.

Once completed, the impressive new Premier Wing will provide more accommodation options for tourists. Strategically located in Kuching's Central Business District, the hotel is within easy reach of some of the city's major tourist attractions such as Top Spot Food Court, Main Bazaar, Tua Pek Kong Chinese Temple, Fort Margherita, Carpenter Street, the old court house and the famous cat statues. Numerous eating and entertainment outlets as well as shopping centres are also within close proximity to the hotel.

receive upgrades including double-glazed windows to reduce outside noise, while its new-look Poolside Pavilion will offer breath-taking views of the Sarawak River and some of Kuching's iconic landmarks.

Meanwhile Damai Beach Resort is undergoing upgrading works carried out in two phases between mid-2016 and 2017, including the redevelopment of new chalet, refurbishment of guest rooms and upgrading of existing facilities like the beachfront walkway and landscaped garden. A boost to the resort is a recent completion of a new ballroom (Sunset Ballroom) that can cater for 600 persons and offers a great dining experience complete with a spectacular view of the South China Sea. To complement this, its swimming pool and Café Satang dining outlet have also been refurbished.

Riverside Majestic Hotel Kuching, where guests are treated with majesty, recently embarked on an expansion exercise with the construction of a second hotel tower dubbed the Premier Wing. Scheduled for completion in June 2016, the 18-storey tower will house 272 rooms comprising standard rooms, deluxe rooms, executive floors, executive lounge and family suites. Combined with the existing tower, it will add up to a total of 513 guest rooms, making Riverside Majestic Hotel the largest hotel in Kuching in terms of rooms.

Each room is well-appointed with the latest array of amenities and comfort features to cater to the needs of tourists, business travellers and families.

A prestigious development project that adds to the list of tourism products under SEDC (Sarawak Economic Development Corporation), the new Premier Wing offers unique experiences for guests. The rooftop Sky Lounge lets guests enjoy a commanding view of Kuching City as they tuck into a delectable meal over some great entertainment. A purpose-built Sky Bridge connects the Premier Wing with the original hotel tower, allowing easy movement of guests and convenient sharing of facilities. The Sky Bridge is a feature that is
